

About the ACA

The ACA is dedicated to preserving the great heritage of Air Commandos' achievements past, present, and future and to honoring the tremendous contributions made to protect the values held dear by all Americans.

ACA membership is rapidly approaching 4,000, and we expect to see continued growth over the next year with a goal of 5,000 in 2015.

The Air Commando Association was founded in 1969 by retired Air Force Brig Gen Harry C. "Heinie" Aderholt as a membership organization for current and retired military from Special Operations Forces.

ACA has a robust chapter program with chapters at Cannon, NM; Hurlburt Field, FL; Kadena, Japan; Kirtland AFB; Mildenhall, England; Rocky Mountain region; Tampa Bay area; and Washington D.C. as well. The ACA is truly a global organization!

ACA Online is up-to-date with current Air Commando news and information, history, upcoming events and our latest publications. Visit www.AirCommando.org to become a member, shop, make a donation or register for upcoming events. For more information, follow us on Facebook: Air Commando Association.

ACA has a robust scholarship program offering six separate scholarships to eligible and worthy students.

ACA is a non-profit veterans organization. Donations made to the ACA are tax deductible under section 501(c)19 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Why Partner with ACA?

One of ACA's goals is to support today's Air Commandos at the command, unit, individual and family levels in any way possible. For example, ACA sponsors several command level awards for AFSOC including Commander's Leadership Awards, Squadron of the Year, and Combat Medic of the Year, to name a few. Industry partnerships support all these efforts.

ACA has strong ties with the AFSOC and SOCOM leadership. Many of today's, and past, senior AFSOC leaders are members of our association. Virtually all flag officers in AFSOC attend our annual banquet.

ACA is held in high regard at the highest levels of the Air Force and United States Special Operations Command. The last four guest speakers for our annual convention/reunion banquet include the USAF Chief of Staff, Commander, US Special Operations Command (USSOCOM), a former US Army Chief of Staff (who was also Commander, USSOCOM), and the former Secretary of the Air Force, The Honorable James Roche.

Our quarterly Air Commando Journal has a distribution of over 8,000 and is delivered to units at all AFSOC bases, Headquarters USSOCOM, the Pentagon, and members of Congress.

In the unfortunate circumstances when tragedy or unexpected needs strike our Air Commando force, ACA, through our foundation, is there to provide financial assistance to meet the needs of family members, wounded warriors, and the units that support them. The Air Commando Association Foundation is a 501(c)3 and is dedicated to assisting Air Commandos in times of unmet needs.
